

SBCRC BYLAWS

ARTICLE I Name

The name of this organization shall be Santa Barbara County Riding Club, Inc.

ARTICLE II Purpose

The purpose of the Santa Barbara County Riding Club, Inc., shall be to promote horse shows and other activities for the benefit of its members, to further the skill of riding, to encourage horsemanship, and to advance the welfare of horses and ponies. Any person interested in horse-related activities may become a member of the club by making written application, payment of dues, and acceptance by the Board of Directors. As a nonprofit corporation, the Santa Barbara County Riding Club will not give an open forum to any person at board meetings or at any club function.

ARTICLE III Membership

Categories of membership in this organization shall be:

1. Amateur Membership - those persons eighteen years of age and over.
2. Junior Membership - those persons seventeen years of age and under.
3. Trainer/Professional – those persons acting in the capacity of a trainer or a professional
4. Family Membership - comprises a husband/wife and/or juniors residing in the same home.
5. Life Membership - any member who, after being a member for three consecutive years and after written application, may be elected or rejected for life membership by a vote of the Board of Directors. The applicant shall be notified in writing of such decision by the president. If rejected, no reason for the board's decision shall be given.
6. Life Family Membership - any immediate family which, after being a member for three consecutive years and after written application, may be elected or rejected for life membership by a vote of the Board of Directors. Children will cease to be part of the Life Family Membership upon reaching the age of eighteen. The applicant shall be notified in writing of such decision by the president. If rejected, no reason for the board's decision shall be given.
7. Sustaining Member – any person aiding in the support of the organization through a special fee.

Members under twelve years of age shall not vote at any general meeting. Memberships are non-transferable. The Board of Directors may expel any member for good cause, after giving that member written notice.

This is a voluntary organization with like-minded individuals who share a passion for horses. As a social group, the Board of Directors reserves the right to expel, revoke, or suspend membership, or to issue a formal warning to any member for just cause, provided that the member is given 10 day notice of a motion to expel, revoke, or suspend membership. The motion shall be heard by the board with the member having the right to present up to 15 minutes of testimony as to why the expulsion, revocation, or suspension of membership should not occur.

ARTICLE IV

Dues

Junior/Amateur Member $45

Trainer/Professional $45

Family Member $65

Life Member $280

Life Family $380

Trainer $45

Board Member $45

Sustaining Member $100

Owner, rider and trainer must be a member to be eligible for Year-End Awards. Tabulation of points for each SBCRC member shall begin from the date membership fees are paid. No points will count prior to payment of membership fees.

ARTICLE V Meetings

Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the members of this Corporation shall be held in conjunction with the year-end awards banquet, where the officers of the upcoming year's Board of Directors shall be presented.

Quorum. The presence in person or by proxy of at least Fifty percent (50%) of voting board members in good standing shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Board Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held regularly at such time and place as the president determines. Non-board members of this Corporation are welcome to attend board meetings only as invited guests of a director of the board of the Santa Barbara County Riding Club. All persons desiring to bring new matters before the Board of Directors must submit in writing, to the president, such matters to be placed on the agenda of the next scheduled board meeting. Board members must approve new agenda items before the items will be discussed. If a new agenda item is not approved for discussion, the board may approve it for the agenda of the next scheduled board meeting as an item of unfinished business. The secretary will notify the proposing person of the board's decisions.

Special Meetings. Special meetings of the membership may be called at any time by the President or by three members of the Board of Directors. Notice of the time, place, and purpose of any special meeting shall be given by U.S. mail or e-mail to all members in good standing at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.

ARTICLE VI Officers

Directors. A board composed of up to 16 directors, if available, appointed for a term of one year as herein set forth shall govern this Corporation, and the retiring president shall automatically become a member of the board. The Board of Directors shall consist of four officers and, if possible, up to twelve members representing bipartisan interests. Additionally, there may be two voting, advisory junior members selected by the board. The board shall have the power to conduct, manage, and control the affairs and business of the Corporation and to make rules consistent with its Articles of Incorporation, with the laws of the State of California, and with these Bylaws. Where no provision for specific proceedings is found in the Bylaws, Robert's Rules of Order shall prevail. Fifty percent (50%) of the directors of this corporation shall constitute a quorum.

Officers of this Corporation shall be: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. All officers of this Corporation shall be elected as herein set forth and shall be members in good standing of the Santa Barbara County Riding Club. Officers shall serve for a term of one year, or until a successor is elected. The President and Vice-President must have served on the board for at least two years prior to assuming office. The office of secretary and that of treasurer may be held by the same individual.

Elections. The Board of Directors will vote on each board position annually by anonymous ballot or proxy. Nominations must be submitted in writing to the Secretary by November 1 or at least 10 days prior to the November meeting and then emailed to all board members on annual ballot with original nomination forms as an attachment, at least 7 days prior to the November meeting. All ballots are collected and tallied by Secretary at meeting and results are immediate. Nominees for new Directors positions shall not be present during the vote by the board. If nominees are not elected to the board, no reason for the board's decision shall be given. Vacancies of any office may be filled by appointment by a majority of the Board of Directors; the appointee shall serve until the next annual election of officers.

Responsibilities of Directors.

Each Director is expected and required to:

- (a) maintain high moral and ethical standards of performance and behavior and to serve as an example to the general membership;
- (b) discharge his or her duties as a Director (i) in good faith; (ii) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and (iii) in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of SBCRC;
- (c) establish policies and procedures to implement and sustain SBCRC's purposes;
- (d) support each resolution and decision made by the Board regardless of the Director's particular view or vote;
- (e) represent the needs and interests of the members in a fair and impartial manner.

(f) contribute and participate frankly and sincerely at Board meetings and within SBCRC's business agenda.

(g) disclose any and all conflicts of interest.

(h) become a member of SBCRC by February 1 of each year.

(i) perform their office's elected duties as described under Duties of Officers or their board membership may be terminated.
